VERNON W. LONG. Editor and Publisher.

A NORTH CAROLINA DEMOCRATIC FAMILY NEWSPAPER FOR NORTH CAROLINA PEOPLE, IN THE STATE AND OUT.

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1887.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE PER YEAR, $1.50.

Vol. XXXI. No. 48.

TOBACCO BOXES. AM PREPARED TO FURNISH MANU-A facturers with all sizes of boxes at rock bot-tom prices. Consult me for estimates before placing your contracts. June 16, 1887-tf R. U. DABBS.

T. B. FINLEY,

Attorney at Law.

Will practice in all the courts of the State.

A. M. STACK. Attorney at Law DANBURY, N. C.

ttention paid to the collection of claims an t the preparation of legal papers. E. F. STRICKLAND, M. D. GRADUATE OF UNIVERSITY OF N. Y. Offers his Professional Service TO THE CITIZENS OF BETHANIA and A surrounding country. Deprice and residence at Bethania, Forsyth county. no 30tf

A. H. ELLER,

Attorney-at-Law, Collection & Insurance AGENT, WITH SPECIAL ATTENTION to the preparation of legal papers and the manage-

Judge Starbuck's Office, Main St., Winston, N. C. BEST OF REFERENCES.

FOR SALE! AN ELEGANT ORGAN!

DENTIST.

Graduate of the University of Maryland. Teeth Extracted without Pain by the use of Nitrous Oxide Gas. OFFICE CITY FLATS, Opposite Big Coffe Pot, oct 13 ly SALEM, N. C.

J. L. LUDLOW C. E., Civil and Sanitary Engineer, COMMANDS NORTHERN CAPITAL FOR

I the erection and maintenance of Water WINSTON, N. C.

TWIN-CITY BARBER SHOP.

SAMUEL BREWER, Prop'r. THE only shop in the city kept by a white man. Everything first-class and kept only for first-class patronnge. You can always be assured of comfort and cleanliness at BREWER'S
No 33-1y Opposite Baltimore Clothing House.

A GENTLEMAN

WiSHES a clean shave at least twice a week and an occasional hair-cut.

BARKSDALE'S the place! Ilis towels are clean, his rezors are sharp and he can please you. Callon him. Next door to the SENTINEL office. 24. T. B FINLEY, ATT'Y-AT-LAW. E. S. BLAIR,

FINLEY & BLAIR, REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

WILKESBORO, N. C. Town Lots, Timber Lands, Mineral Interest, and all kinds of Real Estate Sold on Commis-sion. Parties wishing to purchase real estate in this and adjoining counties will find it to their interest to correspond with us. 38 ly

ESTABLISHED IN 1865.

THE RICHMOND LOCOMOTIVE and MACHINE WORKS.

Richmond - va. The TAnner and Delany Engine Co.

Light Locomotives, Engines, Boilers, Saw Mills and Heavy Machinery. Send fer Cata-ogue and Estimates. 13-tf. VISIT THE CEDAR COVE NURSERIES,

WHICH are now, by edds the largest, best wonducted and well stocked with the most reliable fruits of any nursery in the State. Contain more acclimated varieties of Apples, Peaches Pears, Cherries, Grapes, and all other fruits for orchard and garden planting. We have no competition as to extent of grounds and beautifully grown trees and vines of all durable ages and sizes. We can and with please you in stock. Your orders soli ited. Prices reasonable. Descriptive catalogue sent free. Address, Shore, Yadkin Co., N. C. J. L. PATTERSON. F. F. PATTERSON

PATTERSON & PATTERSON. Attorneys and Counsellors at Law WINSTON, N. C.,

WILL PRACTICE IN all the STATE and Federal Courts. Conveyances and all other legal instruments correctly and promptly drawn. Real Estate sold on commission, Collection of claims made in all parts of the State. All business intrusted to them will receive prompt and faithful attention. ators, big dinners and affairs of State.

Office over Vaughu & Pepper's Store. 50-ly

MONTAGUE, BROKER!

WINSTON, N. C.

WILL SELL LAND and PERSONAL Property on Commission—Collect Rents—Prepare Land Papers—Buy Notes, Bonds, Mortgages and other Securities—Make Small Loans on Good Security—and Alsume the General Management of Estates. The Best References. 2

L. KLINE, Watchmaker and Jeweler,

WINSTON, N. C.

ALL KINDS OF REPAIRING Done with Neatness & Dispatch.

ATE PRICES. Don't forget the place. Opposite the Postoffice. A CHAPTER ON SHAMS.

SOONER OR LATER FRAUD IS DE-TECTED AND GOES UNDER. Some specimens of the Genus Sham, --

Also Illustrations of How the Ears Stick Out From the Lion's Skin. J. W. Hays, Jr., in State Chronicle. The other evening I was the guest in an humble log cabin. The hour was late, the household had dined, and I ate my bread and boiled beans alone. The mother of the family stood near a shelf in reach of a milk jug, but presently leaning over she gazed at my end of the table intently. "Ain't ye got nair knife thar?" she jerked out, as the guest ate beans with "Yes," he replied, "but I cut with my knife and eat with my fork."

"Law, sakes alive! A fork don't answer. I like that woman. She said what was true and unaffected. It is refreshing in this day of "shams," to find an honest, unadulterated article of any thing-or-other a-matter with his giz sort. Elsewhere gentlemen dally with | zard. They call him "Colonel" bea fork but in North Carolina the good | cause he is fat I suppose. He preold custom of shoveling down peas | tends that he can't work, that he can with a knife still remains. These hardly walk. He can only sit in the newly-fledged notions move slowly sun, read the newspapers, smoke and among us. What if "Society" has is sued a bull, deified the fork, and de "Mighty po'ly, mighty po'ly. The clared it the unpardonable sin for BRAND NEW, never having been used a day. Terms. $25 down, balance in monthly instalment of $5 until paid for. Will be sold at a bargain. Address J. K., Care Sentinfl, Winston, N.C. Care Sentinfl, Winston, N.C.

> There are sham everythings now as evaporated, then back to the bedside hiding greasy linen, to your sham Hammonds with a roomful of awe-in- something nice as a vent to her symspiring nervo-electric wheels and but-teries: There are your sham baking "My sakes alive! You down again there is your churchman who says "AMEN!" while he thinks of that last hand which didn't hold "a pair." And that sham, with political aspirations and a religious constituency, who pulls down the corner of his mouth and holds up the corner of the church whilst his inmost soul ridicules your idols; and there are your sham gentlemen with silk hats and obscene jests, and that other old sham with his white hair dyed a purplish black. And what with your saw-dust coffee, and your glucose sugar, and your tale woman because she is no sham.

fraud and a delusion. It is said that people like to be numbugged, and sometimes it does seem so, but sooner or later fraud is detected and goes under. The animals fled from the donkey in the lions skin but presently they saw his ears and came back and laughed at him.

eryone knows them ignorant, or boast | oughly understood, you know. ing of bravery when their liver is lukrown a man who was ignorant of the his feet. first principles of art to gravely affect ophy, green cheese and the man in the moon. But this one is a peculiar will leave a prescription. sort of sham, for he has persuaded only himself that he is a lion, and roars, sharp stick each hour till—"Oh sho! paws dirt and lashes his tail to the said he. One hot punch each hour great amusement of all the animals in till patient is easy."

Everyone knows that female sham in his grave! who is continually alluding to "my family" till one would suppose she traced her lineage back to Baalam's he stop a-gruntin an' went to chuck-lin', becase I was a-hind the do' a ermule. Her father was county senator for a term and hence she knocks her en only knows who her grandfather would forgive my sister for marrying how!" Mr. Turnipdigger. You know we always has been a very high strung But they was proud of Cap'n Bloyo-horn when I merried him an' he's ris' right on up. But law, I ain't never agoing to merry a politician again, for since Cap'n Bloyohorn has been county clerk I aint seen him none.

s scrawney.

Mrs. Capin Bloyohorn does not alow her children to visit their cousin Turnipdiggers. The Turnipdiggers are ionest folks enough, but you see they have never been purified by helding the office of Senator or County Clerk And then sometimes they do kiel their shoes off. Now Mrs. B, hersel eats peas with her knife, and old B. eats with knife and fork at the same time and sits in his shirt-sleeves at dinner besides, but Mrs. B. draws the line at shoes.

This one tries to ling the lion's skin close about her, but the misshapen body is aligned through the borrowed covering. The very geese hiss and

When a woman's nose is throst above her neighbor's heads like r ship's keel out of water, it does not hol' nigh 'nough for me!" came the require a sage to say: Ballast is

> But the sham that riles me most is hat old invalid with a chronic some mis'ry is in my side so bad to day I can seeercely set up. My liver is all swelled up agin, and my kidney has off our coats at dinner, if it is warm. mis'ry hits up and knocks all the Dr. H. V. HORTON, Nightly my good friends here kick off their shoes and stack their feet about His wife, good soul, slaves for him. the social hearth. And judging from hat now and then if attention slacks the way she wiggles her toes the old he goes in, falls upon the bed and lady enjoys the luxury most, tho' the rolls and grouns till the good saint is daughter of the family is a close see nigh to death with fright. Peter, go ond. And why not? If we outrage for the doctor! Run Polly for the conventionalities in one direction, campher! You, Betsy, get a hot when it suits our convenience, then brick!" And the poor loving creatwhy not in another? I like this old ure is off for the flask that sister Matildy sent down since the last attackto find that its contents had strangely > powders, see advertisement, and your Colonel! What's the matter now? sham patriots shedding hypocritical Yes, I kn wit, you've been walking tears over that poor old shirt. And again. What did I tell you!" A moment of intense silence, broken only by the grunts of the invalid. "Pulse very high, temperature bad and that tongue is terrible, sir, terrible! You have a bad case of pseudo-intermittant-

> > Here Peter! Go for a pint of whis key, quick! Miss Betsey! A pitcher of hot water and a little sugar, and aer-nutmen. "Oh Doctor! Doctor! This terrible ocomotor ataxia.

mis'ry! I shall die, Doctor, I shall die this minute!" "You are in a bad way sir, a bad flour the world seems everywhere a way, Colonel, a bad way.

minous with whiteness. There are had a waiter of delicacies on the bed young ladies too who would be litera- before him, and while she pours a ry with an English literature primer cup of tea and butters the toast, Bet. give you this church, and give it to and twenty-six novels by "the Dutchess" for stock in trade. And I have and Polly wraps the blankets about "I paused a moment, and felt the Hls system is much relaxed, madthe art connoisseur, besides being an am. I should like you to add to that authority on music, literature, philos- a beefsteak, very tender madam, cut

Absent-mindedly he wrote, One "Them liquors an' vituals' an' fixics the forest. And there is that youth who spends a year in Washington, is all the old man wanted anyway," lives in a back street and eats at a remarked a youth presently, as he hash-house, but going back to his ru-ral home can talk of nothing but Sen-kitchen.

"Peter William Purify! Ain't you ashamed, and your poor father almost "Well anyhow when you'ns run out studin'.

"Now ma! Pete's been into that sublime head against the stars. Heav- brandy again! I just know it! Git outen here with yo' muddy boots anyway, an' I just swept, an' I'd like to "Now MY family," says she, "never know what boys were made for any

"Dat chile ain't no fool," somebody soliloquized in the kitchen, when they family, and all our connections back had gone. "Pitty dey ain't some yo' in the old Virginny families was so. ole time oberseers round wid a cow-

Why Atlanta Went Wet

Editors Grady and Howell, of the Atlanta Constitution, consume a col-But it allers did seem to me as them umn in the New York World explainplaces fits our family, and they do say they is going to run the Cap'n for Congress. His name ain't up yet, but its talked around. But law, he's of the result. To put it clearly, Atso tired of public life I shant let him lanta voted against Prohibition beaccept, an' if they will run him any- cause Atlanta wants a drink handy would turn in their graves," (Mrs. B. | HOW HE GOTTHE CHURCH THE INTERVIEW BETWEEN DR. DEEMS AND VANDERBILT.

> the Eloquent North Carolina Divine Makes His Home In New York and Establishes the "Church of the Strangers."

Extract from Dr. Deems' "A Romance of Providence." Dr. Charles F. Deems, once a tu-or in the University and later a beoved minister in the North Carolina church in New York City will be full interest to our readers.-EDITOR conversation took place. Doctor what is this about that this: it is in the market. They want $65,000 for it, and I ventured to offer them $50,000. It is on leased ground, and I think it is about worth that.' "'Well,' said he, 'how much have you got toward your $50.000?' I telt in my pocket playfully and

'Well, sir, as nearly as I can judge, about seventy-five or eighty cents.' 'How do you expect to pay for it

Well, Commodore, this is my aching some little time. My work New York and do this work to sich my heart seems inclined, the would never live to "smell the carcass" will come. If not, the Mercer brethren have only lost the use of their property six months, and it and that is a branch road to or near ne and the Church go on.'

"fle looked me straight in the eye, of course the sooner the better. "Doctor, I'll give you the church." New York. I thought that Commo- talk of voting a subscription for such dore Vanderbilt desired to obtain the property for some railroad or other chose to put me forward, supposing I us, she would do well to take the matwas a greenhorn of a parson from the ter under consideration and "strike upon the table, looked him straight in boro, her already phenomenal growth the eye, and said: 'Commodore Van- would increase and she would increase way. Let me turn you a little, just derbilt, you don't know me! There and she would stand without a rival so. That brings the tuberosities of is not any man in America rich in Western North Carolina. Should your ischium up. You are in a bad enough to have me for a chaplain.' I shall never forget the look he return to utilize her possibilities, the chances "Right here, Peter, my boy! Now ed. He had been accustomed to be the hot water there! This will stim- solicited. Here he was, making the ulate the circulation. Drink it right largest offer of charity he ever had down, Colonel. Your disease is pe- made, and found a man refusing to culiar; it took me a long time to get accept $50,000! It was an amazed It is strange so many men forget the hang of it. You see your imbib. and quizzical look. It was the look ulous channels demand more spiritus of a man who had a new sensation, that a lion's skin will not cover an ass' frumenti than your receptaculum pe and could not tell whether he was enears. How often we see men affecting cunize affords. A very dangerous joying it or not. As soon as he could to be wise about something when ey. complication Colonel,—unless thor. frame a reply, he said: 'Doctor, I don't know what you mean Me have By this time the sympathizing saint a chaplain! The Lord knows I've got as little use for a chaplain as any other man you ever saw. I want to

"I paused a moment, and felt that, perhaps, I had made a mistake in the man, and then said: "Commodore, I should not like to be under so great a pecuniary obligation to any gentleman, that, when I had the guns of the Gospel directed against the breastworks of any partic A ular sin, and should see his head rising above them, I should be tempted | trouble. to suspend my fire, or change the range of my shot'

"Doctor,' said he, 'I would not give you a cent if I did not believe ness consists in smoking three dozen twenty-five cent eights a day, and having a signature that nobody can ning of my anger, I felt that a sort of April shower was coming. My eyes were moistening. It seemed to me a wonderful providence; and you know we always think it is a wonderful providence if it runs with our ideas. I extended my hand and said, 'Commodore, if you give me that church for the Lord Jesus Christ, I'll most thankfully accept it.'

"'No,' said he; 'Doctor, I would not give it to you that way, because that would be professing to you a religious sentiment I do not feel. I there is. It is one triend doing something for another friend. Now, if you take it that way, I'll give it to you.' "We both rose at the same moment and I took his hand and I said: 'Com-

it, I am deeply obliged, but I shall receive it in the name of the Lord Jesus modore, in what ever spirit you give

OLD STOKES AWAKENING. The Coal at Wainut Cove and the Iron at Danbury are to be Utilized. Special Correspondence of The Sentinel.

EDITOR SENTINEL: Some eleven or twelve years since, an old gentleman, hailing from Yorkshire, England visited this section and spent several months, examining the coal fields of this county. After a thorough, though quiet examination, he satisfied himself that immense quantities of it were embedded in our soil, but practically Methodist Conference, is known all worthless for lack of transportation over our State. We think an account facilities. No railroad then penetratof his success as pastor of a flourishing ed the county. So the old gentleman returned home and the coal remained ed undisturbed in its natural deposit. Nothing more was heard of him and The Doctor was calling on Commo-lare Vanderbilt when the following our people. Meanwhile the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. steadily pushed forward and early in the present year invaded our borders. It passed directly Mercer street property?'
"Well' said I, 'Commodore, only through the coal regions of the county. Still, our people saw no immediate prospects of development. But, notwithstanding old ocean and many miles intervened, the old English miner eyed the progress of events, and scarcely had the train reached Walnut Cove before he set about arranging to return. He interested an English syndicate of great wealth in the enterprise, came over and leased most of the territory covering the coal beds. He now has a large force of hands at work and is meeting with very gratiought about it. I have been here fying success. He is pleased with both the quantity and quality. He is to prosper. I shall propose to has struck some large veins of excel-Mercer Street Presbyterian lent anthracite coal and is prosecuturch to let me have their building ing the work with energy. If the six months. I shall preach in it mines turn out as he is confident they so six mouths. I shall announce to will, they would prove not only he people of New York that I wish to source of great revenue to his syndi establish, on an unsectarian basis, a cate, but of much benefit to Walnut free Church for all comers, especiatly | Cove and the whole county. Other strangers in the city-a Church that mining operations would follow. It hall be evangelical and undenomina- would be the opening wedge in the al; and I shall appeal for the working of the vast iron ore in the ey in large sums and small. Now, county. It would put this section on nmodere, if God wants me to stay a boom that would be substantial and in North Carolina. of." One thing, however, is needful to the consummation of such a result, will have been employed in Christian the county seat where the iron mines bert and will hererfter devote his en- Lord. - Extract from Bibliout Recorder

Our county is pretty badly behind "Doctor, I'll give you the church." and our people for some time have the a minute I was mad. I had not been taxed up to the constitutional een made so angry since I reached limit. Hence, it would be idle to a purpose. All we can now do is to usiness purpose, or for his estate to build such a road. If Winston that he had some deep design, and would like to help herself by helping pine forests of North Carolina, and he while the iron is hot. With such a could use me. I fired up, and, leaning road, together with the one to Wilkesshe remain inactive and permit others are that she has enjoyed her palmiest days. Come and join us and we will do thee good. JOHN SMITH. Danbury, Dec. 6th.

"Wise Saws and Modern Instances." By the Solon of the Wilson Mirror Slander, like mud, dries and falls

To wait and be patient soothe many He who gathers roses must not fear thorns. A good woman keeps her husband from being a woe-man. In most churches the music, like paper is furnished by the choir.

Harsh words are the thunders that point is Concord. roll out from the dark clouds of an-

In this enlightened age true great- more of them throughout the State.

an unlucky number. But this country started in business with thirteen

A woman never finds half as much satisfaction in the sermon as she does in a grease spot on the back of the woman's dress in front of her.

State Political Points.

One more very worthy man is nom inated for the Supreme Court Judgewant to give you a church. That's all ship and he is Spier Whitaker, Esq.

man in the State. A Raleigh telegram says the health of Hon. Thos. J. Jarvis is not good in Brazil and that he is expected home assist in the services. -State Chronicle. United we stand, divided we fall. When a man loses his hair he falls in State Convention has been held. No American flag in the Anarchist fun-

THE OLD NORTH STATE. PERSONS AND THINGS THROUGHOUT

NORTH CAROLINA. Interesting Items Gathered From The Oxford Railroad next Thursday.

It is said that work will be begun December 17th on the Shelby and Cranberry railroad, which is to go by Morganton and Lenoir.

All North Carolinians will be glad to hear that Col. Duncan K. McRae, now in Brooklyn, N. Y., is rapidly regaining his health.

Potts and Mrs. Lincke for the murder of Paul Lincke last June. North Carolina ex-Confederate soldiers and their widows receive every has found a true bill against W. A.

from the National Treasury. Rev. Sam Small will lecture in Raleigh, December 23d, on "From the

Maj=Robt, Bingham has made an

Mr. E. M. Robinson, fof the U.S. Fish Commission, is stocking the streams in Haywood, Jackson, Swain and other mountain counties with

There are now 18 Republican pape are. Such a road is absolutely essentire time to the Wilson Advances. tial and will inevitably be built, but B. F. McLean has been appointed vacancy caused by resignation. A number of negroes have organ ized a co-operative society at Wil the co-operative plan. grip to the High Point Enterprise. It has entered its fifth year, and deserves

J. A. Houpe, Esq., of Cool Springs township, raised this year six bales of Fantastic shapes that go and come. cotton on seven acres of land, with the Forever silvery and dumb.

The Methodists of Raleigh did the Mrs. Norman with a handsome silver pitcher and goblet, at the close of his Long years ago, one Christmas morn.

The Fayetteville Oil Mills are run-ming night and day, consuming 18 brick. Trees one foot in diameter The Fayetteville Oil Mills are run-give you a cent if I did not believe that you were so independent a man that you would preach the Gospel as honestly to one man as to another. Now, I believe that, and I want to give you the church.'

It is said that bees can predict the weather. They do it with their tails, and curiously enough they always make it warm.

It is said that bees can predict the weather. They do it with their tails, and curiously enough they always make it warm.

It is said that bees can predict the weather. They do it with their tails, and curiously enough they always make it warm.

It is said that bees can predict the weather. They do it with their tails, and curiously enough they always make it warm.

It is said that bees can predict the weather. They do it with their tails, and curiously enough they always make it warm.

It is said that bees can predict the weather. They do it with their tails, and curiously enough they always make it warm.

It is said that bees can predict the weather. They do it with their tails, and curiously enough they always make it warm.

It is said that bees can predict the weather. They do it with their tails, and curiously enough they always make it warm.

Smith are furiously jabbing each oth-Chronicle, over the much vexed question "what is a couplet?" Following electricity, "electric-i-tah — ah — is electric-i-tah,"—why not saya "couplet is a couplet," and let the white wings of peace once more hover to

The Union revival, conducted by Rev. R. G. Pearson, continues with Raleigh.

The Hillsboro Recorder, edited by interest unabated. Up to date there had 20 cords of wood due for subscriphave been 230 conversions. So great tion to your paper, and had to pay Messrs. Strudwick and Parrish, two is the crowd that attends the services cash for wood to keep the printers of the shrewdest politicians in North Carolina, declares for Judge Clark for afternoon and to the men at night. He would it be proper to express your have proven him worthy of all honor. Governor. It says he is the strongest man in the State.

preaches the gospel, in all its beautiful thoughts in Sunday School?—North Washington, and that, if his other exquestioning it—a wonderful man. Nearly all the preachers in the city Sentinel's Exchanges, and Boiled Down for Its Busy Readers. Durham's national bank is open.

Capital stock $100,000. The Swannonoa tunnel is to be arched, with heavy iron and stone.

Work will begin on the Durham & The Sunday cigar buyer of Raleigh now pines and sighs. The drug stores have agreed to close their doors on Sunday. Good.

The grand jury at Beaufort Court year $30,000 in the way of pensions

Bar to the Pulpit." It is said to be a laughable and interesting lecture.

offer of tuition ($100) to the student of the Durham graded school who takes the highest stand in it

It is reported that C. V. Dockery will start a Republican paper at Rockingham, Richmond county.

Mr. C. C. Daniels has sold the Kinston Free Press to Mr. W. S. Her-

United States Commissioner in Robe- December's come, and with her brought son county, viceA. J. Burns, resigned, A world in whitest comfort wrought; and E. W. Pou at Smithfield, to fill a The trees and force and all the posts

Are hidden in the drifts of snow, mington and have purchased an extensive rice plantation near there on And cheats the day of half its light. No mendow brook with liquid gush Runs telling tales in babbly rhymes THE SENTINEL extends a cordial to enter its fiftieth. It is a good paper and deserves success.

tilizer. That's farming.—Landmark. Of happy children, happy king. December Santa Claus shall bring-The students of Trinity College are Who, with his sleigh and reindeer, stops soliciting subscriptions for the build-At all good people's chimney tops. ing of a Literary and Society Hall. Then let the holly red be hung, The cause is a worthy one and has And all the sweetest carols sung. While we with joy remember them-

The journeyers to Bethlehem. Who followed trusting from afar, handsome thing in presenting-Rev. W. The guidance of that happy star C. Norman with a gold watch, and Which marked the spot where Christ

Rev. R. G. Pearson has agreed to go to Wilmington in March to hold a meeting. He has been invited to Winston and Goldsboro, and will probably go to both places. His next

A determined look in the face of tons of cotton seed every day, productor are growing on the surface over the to noon to day, observed that Repubduty frequently hides the scowl of ing 680 gallons of oil. It is a profitational trouble.

It is a profitation walls. The matter will be fully interest ble industry and we ought to have vestigated. In 1870 a wall of rock trict urged the repeat of the internal The "Drummer Case" came up beer's literary sides with paper javelins through the columns of the State the immediate vicinity of the factory. This structure was found by the car lier settlers in Cumberland, and was entirely above ground. These walls the example of the fellow who defined were removed in 1836 by the builders was named Howell Trodgen, and is a G. A. R. man. The German Turners EDITORIAL ETCHINGS FROM EVappealed to the police to put him out, but the police only grinned, while the people cheered. Trodgen is a North > dolph county. MR. PEARSON IN RALEIGH.

Messrs. Theo Hill and C. Alphonso dian Walls," a solid structure found on the banks of Big Rockfish creek in States, and seemed to be holding her own up to going to press.

Carolinian, and enlisted in Missouri.

His parents formerly lived in Ran-

Personal Description of the Man Who is doing Such a Wonderful Work in North Carolina.

Mr. Pearson has a youthful appearance, is clean-shaved, and possesses a ferson Davis as a raw head and slim but well-proportioned body. He bloody bones.—St. Louis Republican, has high-cheek bones, and his face, Dem. though not handsome, gives evidence of gravity, thought and determination, He looks one squarely in the eye, and burg Index-Appeal thinks he has means business as he approaches you. questions you, or directs about the deails of the meetings. He gives point- be. He (or she) says: "Your corresed but kindly admonition to the pondent asserts upon the authority of dead-heads" in the christian ranks, and tells them to lay off their sloth and ion after all) that the present outlook go to work, or ge out of the way of others willing to work. He does not State will push Stedman's name before impress you as an orator, but there is the nominating convention to a sucsomething that charms and enlists your attention from the beginning to the end of his sermon. The sea of upturned faces attests intense interest on the part of the listeners.

Mr. Pearson's preaching is thoroughly biblical. Each position taken supported by apt quotation from the intures. "Hear the word of God" the challenge of the preacher. He as the Scriptures at his fingers' ends. nd book, chapter, verse and correct ecital falls from his lips, carrying onviction to every candid mind. He is a spledid logician, and knows w to meet the caviller, the skeptie, nd the subterfuges of unbelievers generally. His sermon on Sunday ght, Nov. 20th, on the divinity of Christ, was a strong effort, and we vish that it could be published for the enefit of others than those who heard . Every inch of room in the great use was occupied -- floor, galleries.

audience, ladies even standing, listenlug with breathless interest to this

And all the paths we used to know

Of liberty and summer time:

Breathe once upon the window glass,

But frozen in its ley cell, was born.

Frank Dempster Sherman

+ -- ---

Pre-Columbus Wall Bullding in N. C.

was discovered in Rowan county, and it has seen traced for several miles.

Since the late war a wall has been discovered in Halifax county in North on the original rock foundation.

Wood: Wood; or we Perish!

We Thank You, Brother Caldwell.

Mr Bland thinks the reduction will amount to seventy five millions, > yet a low tariff constituency, but who wenld approve a moderate tariff re-o amounts, but are hopeful of the passage of a popular messure. Maj. Wise, of Virginia: "It has got o come this time, Mr. Randall can't machinery of the internal revenue Virginia Congressmen in the city to day with Messrs. Wise and O'Fer-Some Southern members intent to

A remarkable discovery is reported at Cronly, on the line of the C. C. The walls of a building 100 monopoly through the postal laws, but by 60 feet have been found about ten lina representative on the ground up

The bird will have to sit up remarkably late also, for it will take an immense amount of persuading to make many of the voting "worms" believe the Senator ought not to stay where he is until the final crash His presence his hand clasp, his kindly voice, Reader, if you were an editor and and above all, his constant attention had 20 cords of wood due for subscrip- to the duties imposed upon himterest at Washington, or burling dis cellent qualities were below par, is enough to induce us to return him: for if there is one thing we do need

PRICE 5 CENTS.

those foreigners shall not get it now," THE PUBLIC'S OPINION.

ERYWHERE.

A Miscellaneous Mixture of Points, Personal, Political, Social, and Industrial That the Papers are Talking

Jay Gould has landed in England, but Queen Victoria still retains a controlling interest in the throne.-Life. The nineteenth century is too far advanced for the success of the attempt to frighten the North with Jef-The correspondent of the Petersfound out what we are all waiting to know-whom our next governor will a careful observation (the best criteris that the progressive Democracy of the cessful consummation, and with this result equal success at the lallot box can be confidently expected. Let every voter in the State pre-pare to attend all the conventions, primary, count., and see to it, that only men in whose judgement and integrity you have confidence are elected delsgates to the larger conventions. In the primary discuss your wants, instruct your delegates, and a better day will dawn. If the good people will stand to-gether, conventions can be kept pure. If they are not, it is the fault of those who stay at home, and they have no right to complain. Go to conventions and fight for the right.—Durham Plant.

Congressional Opinions, Washington Correspondent of Wilmington Mes-

Senator Reagan says the tariff must not so much extend the free list to oblige manufacturers as reduce the duties on the necessaries of life to favor and that the tax on tobacco will be repealed as a pure concession. Mr. Vance, of Connection, states that the repeal of the formeeo tax would please his people, who are not

Mr. Lanham, of Texas, thinks we tre sure to have a good bill. Co. Stewart and Mr. Grimes, of Georgia, will not express an opinion as prevent it." [Three years ago Wise was a Randallite.] Col. O'Ferrall favors a low tariff and the repeal of internal taxes on to becco, with a modification of the are strongly opposed to the Virginia movement for a Southern man on the Democratic Presidential ticket next year. I had interviews on the subject press the education bill. They are not entirely sanguine, however. The postal telegraph scheme is an liked generally by Southern members. Mr. O'Ferrall thinks the Federal Government can control the telegraph taxes. There are now no dissificate.

way, I sholy aint going among them awful women in Washington as goes half dressed, an' all that, my family half dressed, and saying that "they could not get that flag at Vicksburg," and that half dressed, and saying that "they could not get that flag at Vicksburg," and that half dressed, and saying that "they could not get that flag at Vicksburg," and that half dressed, and saying that "they could not get that flag at Vicksburg," and that half dressed, and saying that "they could not get that flag at Vicksburg," and that half dressed, an' all that, my family half dressed, an' all that, my family half dressed, and saying that "they could not get that flag at Vicksburg," and that half dressed, an' all that, my family half dressed, and my family half dr